
NEW CONVALESCENT HOME — Foundations are being laid on a two acre lot at 8351 Broadway, Lemon Grove, for a 100-bed, $1 million convalescent home. Designed by architect John August Reed of Los Angeles, the home, called Park Grove Convalarium, is being built under the partnership of Matt Strauss and Fred Leeds of M. C. Strauss Co., and Zane Feldman, proprietor of a yardage store in North Park. The home is being financed by Silvergate Savings and Loan and completion date is aimed at January 1, 1964. It will be a fully air conditioned luxury-type facility, with 10,000 sq. ft. of patio space, physical therapy facilities, a barber and beauty salon, park-like landscaping and FM music piped into every room, which will be mainly private and semi-private. The home will employ approximately 45 persons. The first unit will be 27,000 sq. ft.

Incorporation Committee Determines L G Boundaries

The Lemon Grove Men's Club committee on incorporation decided late Tuesday afternoon to use the school district's boundaries for the proposed area to be inuorporated.

The committee's next step is to secure a legal description of the Lemon Grove School District's boundaries before it can file a notice of intention to incorporate with the County Board of Supervisors, according to Frank Armstrong, committee chairman.

However, four areas of the school district are excluded from the proposed area to be incorporated, because they have been annexed by San Diego or La Mesa, Armstrong said. They include:

- The area just south of Monterey Heights elementary school, which has been annexed by the City of San Diego.
- College Grove Shopping Center, which was annexed by San Diego after Lemon Grove's first attempt to incorporate in 1955.
- The hill directly north of St. John of the Cross church, which was annexed by the City of La Mesa.
- The southwestern boundary of Lemon Grove north of Mallard st. near Federal blvd., which belongs to San Diego.

Armstrong said the proposed area of Lemon Grove to be incorporated encompasses from 4½ to 5 square miles.

In regard to an article on the front page of this newspaper last week, Bertram McLees, county counsel, advised the County Board of Supervisors that they could halt any incorporation attempts in the county until the Local Agency Formation Commission is established after September 20 in accordance with Assembly Bill 1662.

Armstrong told the Men's Club last Friday that the Board could do nothing, lawfully, to stop incorporation procedures in the county.

It was later learned by the County News Service reporter who wrote the story that McLees's "earlier statement had been based on incomplete information concerning the new bills." McLees had told the reporter that a notice of intention, petitions and signature checking "would probably have to be completed before the September 20 deadline to avoid coming under the jurisdiction of the new agency."

Actually, Lemon Grove can file the notice any time before the Local Agency Formation Commission is formed, according to Assembly Bill 1662, McLees later remarked.

In other action at the Men's Club meeting, Jack Cummings was elected to finish out the year as president. John Dail will finish the year as vice president, and John Bridger was elected program chairman replacing Ed Burt, who was transferred from the community.

The program Friday will be a talk by Montie Montroy, a conrtoversial San Diego citizen who once headed a recall on the mayor and who has been embattled with city and county government on such things as zoning and sewerage laws. The meeting, according to John Dail, presiding for vacationing Jack Cummings, will probably cause blood pressures to rise among members at Montroy promises to tell "true facts" about local government.

Agriculture Land Zones To Remain

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — Residents of the Montemar dr.-Helix st. section of S.V. are apparently on their way to winning their battle to keep their land zoned A-3(1) and A-4(1) which allows the heaviest agricultural use in county zoning, including open lot feeding of farm animals.

However, the zoning also provides that homes built be on at least an acre of land and it is that section that meets the approval of the residents.

The controversy arose when the planning commission initiated a proposal to rezone 289 acres south of Tangor way and north of Ivy st. from A-4 generally to E-1A (half acre lots) and R1 (10,000 square feet lots).

The purpose was, as Commissioner Gil Ray of Spring Valley put it, to prevent such operations as hog ranches and chicken farms. It was also the purpose to remove agricultural zoning barriers which could act to prevent the growth of the predominantly-residential area.

This stated purpose ran head on into a group of residents on Montemar who wanted nothing to do with the smaller lot sizes. Therefore, when the proposal was presented to the Board of Supervisors Tuesday, the entire western portion of the 289 acres was to be left as agricultural land.

Captain H. E. Lebarron, USN, retired, spoke for the residents. He said the residents wanted no change and that there was no need for sewers in the area because septic tanks work acceptably on the large lots.

It soon turned out, however, that the planners had not excluded enough land from the zone change. Several residents on Montemar near Austin road found that their property was still within the area of zone change.

Mrs. William Oaks, 2608 Roca Verde st., said that of the people who signed the petition, eleven had been granted their wish but that ten had been left out. She said the people want no part of half acre zoning.

The board sent the whole matter back to the planning commission with the request that the excluded portions be expanded to include the rest of the property owners on Montemar.

The zoning law prevented them from making the decision Tuesday without returning to the planners, but there is little doubt but that the Montemar residents will get their way at a future meeting.

Parents Protest Driving Pupils From Home School

A group of Mount Miguel Terrace parents protested Monday to have their children attend Avondale elementary school instead of having them transported by bus to Bancroft.

The parents handed a 43-signature petition to the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District board at Monday night's meeting opposing the plan to send their children to a school other than the one they can see from their kitchen windows.

However, the board voted 2-1 to continue the boundaries previously established, which require 98 children in about 18 acres of Mount Miguel Terrace area to be driven one mile to Bancroft elementary.

The decision to continue the present boundaries was made because Avondale will be over crowded, whereas Bancroft has adequate room and facilities to accommodate the 98 surplus pupils, according to Dr. M. Ted Dixon, district associate superintendent. The district's 1963-64 average allows no more than 33 pupils to a classroom.

Dixon said it will be less expensive to send the pupils to Bancroft rather than moving portable class rooms to Avondale to cope with the surplus problem.

LG Boy, Friend Brave High Waves To Rescue Woman

A Lemon Grove boy and his friend braved 15-foot breakers last Thursday night when they rushed into the surf to save a woman caught in a rip tide 30 yards from shore.

William Halvorsen, 18, of 6777 Central ave., Lemon Grove, and his friend, John Rawcliffe, 18 of Fresno, were walking along Coronado beach about 7:30 p.m. when they heard two children yelling for help. Their grandmother, Mrs. Walter Suter, 55, of 847 H st. Coronado, was caught in the rip tide and couldn't get back to the children who were playing close to shore.

Halvorsen and Rawcliffe, both slender and only average swimmers, both plunged into the water to save the woman. They had been thinking of going swimming, but thought it might be too cold.

"It was all we could do to pull her out," Bill said later. "She was almost unconscious," he remarked. He then went and called the fire department, which responded and gave Mrs. Suter oxygen.

Mrs. Suter's husband was summoned to the scene and took her home.

John Rawcliffe had been visiting the Halvorsen family for a little over a week.

On the Passing of a Friend

Jim Spears, our town's auto dealer, is dead. His heart gave out at his work at quitting time Tuesday.

We suppose more people knew, and liked Jim than any other person we can think of.

Most of us liked Jim because he had that attitude of urgency about living. "Do something nice for your friends while they are alive," he used to confide to us, "because after they are dead they'll never know you did it." He assiduously practiced that philosophy and many individuals in Spring Valley and Lemon Grove will attest to it.

He was generous to a fault. No group or organization ever got turned away when they asked Jim for help. He made many of his contributions unasked. We have seen tears course down his cheeks when he heard of a misfortune of someone he knew.

Jim Spears served his community well. He contributed of himself and his finances to aid an incorporation attempt in Lemon Grove several years ago. Had the election been successful, he would have been Lemon Grove's first councilman. Such was his popularity. An avid flier, he was a member of the El Cajon C of C aviation committee and a director of the L.G. C of C. He was active in the QB's Flying club, an invitational organization, and was past president of the L.G. Men's Club.

He was a director of the Grossmont hospital district and brought a smart businessman's thinking to the board.

In any crowd, sooner or later, a group gathered around Jim Spears. Old friends brought new ones and they all liked him because he had sense as well as a sense of humor and he liked people.

We are all the poorer by the loss of James P. Spears who was a great and good friend of the writer of this column.

McLees Defines New Super Agency, A.B. 1662

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — The County Board of Supervisors took another look Tuesday at the Local Agency Formation Commission — a new super agency that will have absolute control over the formation of any future cities or district other than school districts and annexations initiated after September 20.

Bertram McLees, county counsel, outlined all the ramifications of Assembly Bill 1662, passed by the recent legislative session and signed into law by Governor Edmund Brown.

"The function of this commission will be "To review and approve or disapprove with or without amendments wholly, partially or condiitionally proposals for the incorporation of cities, proposals for the creation of special districts other than school districts and proposals for the annexation of territory to cities and special districts other than school districts," said McLees in a special three-page analysis.

Members Appointed

The supervisors themselves will have to appoint two members to serve on the commission. Two members will be selected by the mayors of all the cities in the county. And a fifth member to represent the public at large will be selected by the other four commissioners.

McLees noted that any incorporation proposal initiated before the first commissioners are appointed would not come under the jurisdiction of the new commission.

This contradicted advice given last week concerning a proposal to incorporate Lemon Grove, in which he said that several steps would have to be taken before this commission could be avoided. He explained to a County News Service reporter that his earlier statement had been based on incomplete information concerning the new bills.

The supervisors could appoint two members from their own ranks or select from the county clerk, county auditor and controller, the county assessor, county surveyor or county registrar of voters.

Only the mayors or city councilmen can serve from cities.

The mayors of all the cities will have 60 days to meet and choose their two representatives.

The commission will have to set up its own standards and procedures for the evaluation of proposals for creation of cities and special districts and for annexations.

The power of the commission is absolute, McLees' report makes clear. Any proposal for incorporation or annexation must be sent by the supervisors to the new commission.

The formation commission must hold a hearing on the proposal within 60 days, make a finding within 60 days on formations and 30 days on annexations and report back to the supervisors.

If the determination is favorable by the commission, the supervisors may proceed with the details. If the commission turns the proposal down, it is dead for at least one year.

The supervisors must furnish the new commission with funds for operating expenses, quarters, equipment and supplies. Services of the County Boundary Commission can be used by the Formation Commission, but it can also appoint an executive officer and such staff as may be needed to conduct its work.

Demand Heavy for New Bank Stock Says Dail

Demand for stock in the proposed Sweetwater Fidelity National bank which is scheduled to be opened next year in the Spring Valley shopping center has exceeded all expectations, John Dail, a Lemon Grove insuranceman said this week. Dail is an organizing director of the bank.

Subscriptions for stock and pledges for deposits now on hand indicate that the bank will have in excess of $2 million on deposit six months after the bank opens," he said.

Deposits must be pledged by stock subscribers according to organizational rules. Over 275 subscribers have indicated a desire to purchase stock, he said.

Dail said the bank charter is being sought on the basis that no independent bank has been chartered in the east county for more than 30 years. He also said that a local publicly owned banking institution should be provided for the people of this area since no such bank exists now.

The bank will provide all the services of chain banks but will be tailored to needs of local patrons, he said.

The organizing directors of the Sweetwater Fidelity National bank in addition to Dail are Dr. Charles Garrett, Abe Mukai, Leon Hester, Robert Burns and Roland Packard.

The charter, said Dail, will come from the federal government as it is to be a national bank. No state license is required.

State Employment Gives Aid To 'Skool Daze' Sales

A three-man crew of the State Department of Employment canvassed Lemon Grove business firms last week to assist the Merchants' Division of the L.G. Chamber of Commerce in their "Skool Daze" program.

The aid was to get assignments for high school youngsters in Lemon Grove shops during Lemon Grove Skool Daze on September 5, 6 and 7.

Frank Medlock, supervisor of Employer Relations Representative Group for the State Department of Employment, said that 92 local business firms had been contacted.

"We are sure a great many youngsters will profit by the experience of on-the-job training which comes as a by-product of the Merchants' Division promotion," Medlock said.

Meanwhile, merchants are going through the routine of acquiring sale merchandise for the up-coming sales event, according to Don Johns, Division chairman.

The Foothills Art Association is booked to display approximately 500 pieces of art on the plaza in downtown Lemon Grove September 7, as part of the promotion.

Claude Sarvis, art show chairman, said that 30 artists are scheduled to participate. Some of them display as many as 30 creations, he said.

More than 150 oil and water colors will be on display, Sarvis said. Many of them will be local landscapes and scenes. Some will be scenes executed from the spot. At least four art teachers will be among the painters.

Pictures will be available to the public for $15 to $200, it was said.

A special edition of this newspaper will be issued marking "Skool Daze." Back-to-school information will be published concerning local school districts.

Local Jehovah Witnesses Start Trek to Convention

Members of the Spring Valley-Lemon Grove congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses are leaving this week for an eight-day international convention at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena September 1-8.

A total of 234 members of the religious group will join other delegates at the Rose Bowl who are coming from all 50 states and 34 foreign countries.

Edgar Flinn, presiding minister of the Spring Valley-Lemon Grove congregations, said all meetings of local congregations will be cancelled until after the convention.

"Every congregation in the western western part of the United States is expected to have representatives in Pasadena. In most cases, the entire congregation will go," Flinn said, "which will require suspension of our local services for the next two weeks."

Flinn said 8,000 volunteers in the Los Angeles-Pasadena area spent thousands of hours searching for rooming accommodations for delegates in private homes.

A total of 40,000 delegates will be placed through the convention rooming department. Other volunteers are staffing information booths throughout the greater Los Angeles area to provide conventioners with travel data, freeway routes and location of accommodations in relation to the convention site.

Pastor's Father To Officiate at Skyline Church

The Rev. Charles Butcher, father of the pastor of the Skyline Wesleyan church, will be speaker Sundav. He will bring a message on Missions.

The Rev. C. Butcher has been a minister in Wisconsin for 44 years. In 1958 he was president of the Cal. Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Church. Officially, he is retired but he is extremely busy in the field of evangelism.

Following his visit here, Rev. Butcher will spend five months in Honduras with his daughter and her family. His daughter is a missionary there. He will travel by bus and banana boat so as to personally accompany medical supplies entrusted to his care for Hondurians.

Associate Pastor D. Johnson reported that 50 Skyline Collegians are attending a prayer retreat at Palm Springs during the week-end. The Skyline Sunday school is the largest in the Wesleyan Methodist Conference, he said. In the past year attendance has grown from 20 to almost 90 at each class, he said.

HOLY COMMUNION CHURCH TO CELEBRATE

Holy Communion will be celebrated at both the 8:15 and 11 a.m. worship services this coming Sunday at Lemon Grove Lutheran Church.

The church council will meet September 3 for its monthly meeting.

Hello:

When someone asked me how many people I've served since I became fascinated with the niceties of the food business in 1932 I guessed a million. Actually, I think it's about twice that many and I am proud of every meal I served.

HENRY GOLDY

In 31 years in dining rooms and in catering, I have exercised the most demanding quality controls devised. Better quality in the kitchen produces better food for your dining pleasure! If it's not top quality it can't come into our kitchen.

Our catering service is a case in point. We have served as many as 7,600 meals (in 55 minutes) at one time and a few as 4 meals (new homeowner's first meal at San Carlos Homes.) Each time, the meals and service are uniformly good as the portions are generous. That makes this interesting proposition. You could transpose any one of the diners in the San Carlos "four-group" with one of the "7,600 group" and no difference in quality, service or portion could be noted.

It's all in quality control. It's your perpetual guarantee that every morsel and every drink we serve will be superb. My associates, Jack Cruse, our chef. and Joe Edinger, our dining room manager-greeter provide additional touches that give the food its character. They frequently tell diners that all the food that glitters is Goldy's.

Glitteringly yours,
Henry Goldy

My Beer? 'Didn't Want It To Get Run Over'

William J. Overton, 19, 1639 San Altos st., L.G., was arrested last Saturday on a charge of possession of alcohol by a minor. Deputies said they saw Overton standing beside a car holding a can of beer—Overton ducked when he saw the deputies, they said. A 12 oz. can of beer was found in back of the right front tire of the car.

"That's not my beer," Overton allegedly said, "I only found it there and was moving it under the car so it wouldn't get run over." A can opener was found in his shirt pocket.

Pop Bottle Case Uncovered

The case of the missing soda pop bottles from the teachers' lounge was solved last week when two boys were caught at Highlands elementary school by Deputy G. Wilson.

The 10 and 11 year old boys allegedly admitted breaking into the school through the kitchen window to get the soda pop. They also admitted several previous entries to the school.

One boy admitted entering the school on six previous occasions, which checked with cases reported to the Sheriff's office—all except the case of a burglary where footprints of a large dog were found leading to and from the point of entry.

Ill Fated Visit

Gordon Edward Alvey, stationed aboard the USS Colonial in San Diego, was arrested August 22 on a charge of battery and carrying a concealed weapon.

Alvey allegedly said that when he visited his home at 726 Worthington, Spring Valley, his children "started crying and wanted me to stay. My wife got mad and slapped me in the face and threw her purse at me. I kicked at the purse and the boy jumped on me."

Mrs. Alvey, who made the citizen's arrest, allegedly said she dropped the purse and when she reached to pick it up, "he kicked me."

Sheriff's deputies found a .32 caliber revolver under the front seat of Alvey's car.

Trike Wheel Taken

Alice Lee Johniken, 767 Sweetwater, S.V., reported Friday that someone entered her garage, removed the front wheel from a tricycle, and left the rest of he trike intact.

Yokes Unyoked

Either a dishonored rooster or a person with a sinister attitude toward chicken production satisfied his distaste last week. The unidentified party took 500 eggs from laying pens and threw them on the ground, it was reported by John Scheebr, Route 1, P.O. Box 89, Jamul.

BB Gunners Hit School

Five 16x30 inch windows were broken with BB guns and eight with rocks at Mount Vernon Elementary school last week on Wednesday. Damage was estimated at $60.

Grand Theft Reported

Mrs. Billie J. Alexander, 4145 Tropico dr., S.V., reported last week that her cosmetic bag containing $272 in cash and traveler's cheques was stolen.

Coins Stolen

Robert W. Antell, who collects coins, reported last Friday the theft of $72.25 in coins issued by the U.S. Mint from his home at 7905 Lincoln, L.G. Two suspects were named.

Thief's Best Friend

Diamond rings worth $500 were reported stolen Monday by Jean C. Parsons of 7748 Daytona, L.G.

The DIMMER VIEW

ness?" we asked Mrs. Sally Stein, a stately red-head who recently moved her growing business, Alluring, Inc., to the 5900 block on El Cajon blvd. — just over the hill from here.

"My husband insisted that I try some treatments after our last child left me with a flattened bustline," said the well-proportioned Mrs. Stein. "The treatments restored family amity so painlessly that we decided to buy the bust developer's franchise."

"The results of the treatments are measurable in just a few weeks?" we asked tentatively.

"Well, in my case it was nearer six months but it resulted in a 3-size improvement. From Padded-A to 34 C." She didn't explain what the symbols meant but they sounded formidable.

"What has been the most rewarding facet of this business?" we asked.

"In five years of operation there have been several. One is seeing self-confidence come to shy women.

"A middle-aged, timid elementary school teacher with a squeaky voice became a robust lady with an outgoing personality after a few months of treatments. She had advanced two sizes, enough to revitalize her emotional makeup," she explained.

"Another reward is what our treatments can do sociologically. The first year in business three of our patrons were able to regain their husbands. Three others, after a barren existence, showed a brave, new front to society, found mates and got happily married."

Apparently those who found marital solutions required no regular future aid. A few maintenance treatments were all that were necessary to aid them in enjoying a more abundant life.

Are there problems in running a bust developing salon? "Well, keeping competent operators poses one of the biggest headaches," she said.

"A woman with a bustline problem often has many inner conflicts. She needs a sympathetic ear into which to pour her troubles. But a potential personality conflict with the operator already exist. It's because of the resentment of a woman with a problem bustline has for her sister who is adequately endowed.

"If the operator is not sympathetic, the customer quits the treatment before results show. If the operator is too sympathetic, the customer unburdens her woes on her—and the woes resulting from a flat figure can be many. Sometimes the operator absorbs all the misery she can stand, and quits. Our big problem today is keeping women operators," Mrs. Stein said.

"Are you considering men operators," we offered exploratorilly.

"No."

"How do customers find their way to your salon?" we asked.

"We advertise. Mostly in newspapers. We usually try to build our programs around a slogan. At first we advertised 'We Fix Flats,' then we promised to "Make Mountains out of Molehills."

"Recently we formed a group called "Pads Anonymous" which is something like 'Alcoholics Anonymous' with an obvious difference.

"Right now we are using a swimming season slant. Our ads ask "Do You Have Floating Falsies?"

How do the machines work? They are simple. Vacuum is alternately induced into hard plastic cups in a 5 to 25 second cycle. This provides the needed exercise, Mrs. Stein avers. The machine now used by Alluring is an improvement over the original equipment. It was invented by Mrs. Stein and her husband.

One other little tid-bit of information came from Mrs. Stein. Regardless of the ardors of self-improvement by some methods, Alluring is simplicity itself. "The customer relaxes in a comfortable recliner chair where she can read or nap. There is no strain or pain," she said.

One of our newspaper associates observed that the process is not new. His family had owned a vacuum producing machine on their farm in Missouri.

The family operated a dairy.

The aid and comfort given by Alluring, Inc. may never be adequately measured but who are we to resist such a prayerful slogan as Mrs. Stein says will be advertised this fall, "Help Stamp Out Falsies."

Salt Shaker Missing

Arlene McMahon, a waitress at Stan's Car Hop on Broadway in L.G., complained to Sheriff's deputies last week that a sugar container and salt shaker were missing from a booth where two women and a man were sitting.

Engine Underhaul

Michael Buckner and his brother, Harry W., couldn't start their car Sunday morning. They checked under the hood and found dirt in the area of the carburetor, wires pulled from the coil, and the air cleaner removed and thrown in the back seat. Two suspects were named.

House Vandalized

Carolyn Louise Cross, of 3732 Andreen, S.V. complained to Sheriff's deputies last week that someone broke two sliding glass doors, a window and the glass cover of an electric meter while her home was unoccupied last week. Vandals also broke into the house and poured or sprayed water on a bedroom floor.

Battery Charged

Thomas Ray Lewallen, Welding School, Box 6, US Naval Station, was arrested last Saturday on a charge of battery.

Lewallen allegedly broke a chair and window, pulled a telephone from the wall and struck his wife Bernice in the mouth at her residence, 947 Brucker, S.V.

Shot in Foot

Dennis A. Hendrick, 9, was on a rabbit hunt on his parents' ranch, 3775 Brems, S.D. 15, when his .22 cal. rifle accidently discharged while he was leading it. The bullet passed through the top of his left foot and out through his arch.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

CHILDREN DESERVE CREDIT

Dear Editor:

You often read of the fires set by children or petty thefts they are involved in. But when children do something constructive I think it deserves attention also.

Sheryl Eaton, 10, of Chula Vista, Karen Duncan, 10, and Greg Duncan, 8, of 8732 Adriana st., Spring Valley, were watching Johnny Downs on TV recently when he expressed a need for help for muscular dystrophy. The children immediately sent for the carnival kit he offered and planned their own benefit carnival for the disease.

The charity carnival was in the Duncan's garage. Karen put on a clown act and Sheryl and Greg had a puppet show. Afterwards, games were played with prizes either made or donated from their toy box.

A 5 cent admission donation was asked and kool aide was sold. Most customers were from Adriana st.

A total of 95 cents was collected and the children intend to add more and send it to Johnny Downs to aid research for muscular dystrophy.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Ronald Duncan

Mr. Editor:

I am glad I live in Lemon Grove. Monday, August 26 I had a flat tire on Kempf st., near Golden, a busy spot. Two teenage boys came to rescue and change the tire for me. I didn't get their names, but I think they should be thanked publicly, to let people know we do have some fine and helpful teenagers.

Dear Editor:

Will you help me express to the truly wonderful people who so generously extended to me their sympathy at the recent loss of our daughter, Barbara Jean Leonesio, our sincere gratitude?

We know we will never be able to thank each one of you personally, so we are taking this means of thanking each one of you from the bottom of our hearts.

The tremendous amount of flowers, cards and notes completely overwhelmed us and we will forever remember these kindnesses.

Please accept our humble gratitude.

I'LL REMEMBER YOU
By Mrs. Howard Jones, Riverside, Calif.
( Mrs. Leonesio's sister)

When first I see green leaves of Spring
With all the promises they bring
When I 'wake at dawn to hear birds sing,
Then I'll remember you.

Each time I walk in forests green
Beside still pools or quiet stream
A place damp cool and serene,
Then I'll remember you.

For you were young and you were Spring
You were music for birds to sing
Our future promises—our everything!
And I'll remember you.

In pools I'll see your blue quiet eyes
That you now are gone my heart denies,
Till once again my said truth belies
But I'll remember you.

DONOVAN CRITICIZES BUS FARE PROPOSAL

Editor's Note: The following letter was sent to Public Utilities Transportation Engineer Albert C. Porter regarding his recommendation for a temporary interim fare increase.

Dear Mr. Porter:

Your recent recommendation to allow an interim basic bus fare increase in San Diego will hit hardest at those who can least afford it —workers without means to own or operate cars and our many older citizens living on pensions and other fixed incomes.

A fare hike will deprive some of our older citizens of small pleasures they derive from bus rides into town, to Balboa Park and other community centers where they meet. Many marginal workers without cars who find work intermittently, and working mothers who have outlays for baby-sitters and other costs, will be hard put to meet an additional outlay.

Interim and temporary increases in fares and taxes have a disquieting habit of becoming permanent increases. Usually they are only stop-gap measures postponing the inevitable.

It seems incongruous to award an interim increase followed by a study to improve efficiency to keep rates down. Shouldn't the efficiency study precede a rate increase?

In view of the pending feability study for a municipal takeover of the transit system, might it not be better to hold the line of fares and accelerate the action of the communities who are interested in assuming the operation of the transit system?

One opportunity for enabling legislation was allowed to slip by during the recent general session of the State Legislature. A little belt tightening on the part of the transit system should make survival possible until feasibility can be determined and enabling legislation processed. I urge your serious consideration to the needs of our less fortunate citizens before making a final recommendation.

Sincerely,
Richard J. Donovan
Assemblyman, 77th District

Bounce Back Seen By Griffin Coach

The Grossmont College Griffins will abandon the "I" formation when football practice gets under way this fall and Coach Jim Ezkenbeck would like to leave a few other items behind, mainly, a losing season.

The Griffins, in their first year of competition in the tough Eastern Conference, won two games and lost seven, while finishing in ninth place.

"The enthusiasm to bounce back after a shoddy season should prevail," the coach is predicting.

Two stellar lettermen from last years freshmen ranks will be missing. George Sherrod, quarterback, has gone into the professional baseball field, while standout tackle, Roger Myers, will be attending the University of Arizona.

Among the proven players returning will be quarterback George Engle, running backs Pete Ostrom, Rick Eckert, Mike Shaw, Art Whaling and defensive specialists Bob Stephens and Frank Granillo, who were all regulars last year.

Linemen Ron Michaels, Frank Reed, Bill Leep, and Martin Zacavich will also return to make the Griffin picture brighter.

Newcomers will hold an important role in the Grossmont College football fortunes this fall, Erkenbeck believes, and when physicals and equipment issues come to pass on August 30 he will be checking the lists of the freshmen along with assistant coach Bob Rump.

El Cajon High will possibly supply one of the Griffins finebacks with All - Grossmont League Bob Christian, a talented defensive back.

Russ Eckhardt, from Granite Hills, ran the 100 in :09.7 this past spring in track and when the lad puts on the football gear, he does not slow down to a waltz.

Norman May and Jim Nagle of El Cajon are other All-League linemen along with end Ron Schwab of Mt. Miguel that Erkenbeck looks forward to.

Other top candidates include former All-Metro Leaguer Bob Steckman of Mt. Miguel, who played on the Utah State freshman squad, Bob Henselmeier, former Grossmont High star who made All-American in Hawaii, and Dick Campbell who played high school ball at El Cajon and made All-Army Europe. All three are linemen.

Erkenbeck expects 60 players to report Friday with few play changes except the absence of the "I."

We're going to switch to the pro-T offense with wide flanker and split end. This year's squad will be smaller but quicker and we should continue our strength up the middle. "We will try to throw the ball more," Erkenbeck stated.

"Experience will be in our favor and the whole program should be better organized," he predicted.

College Dean Appointed to Study Group

Grossmont College Dean of Instruction Charles C. Collins has been appointed to a national committee of the American Association of Junior Colleges studying junior college guidance programs. The committee will function under a $104,000 grant from the Carnegie Corporation.

The national committee is headed by T. R. McConnel, chairman of the Center for the Study of Higher Education at the University of California, Berkeley. The committee will conduct a two-year appraisal of post high school guidance needs of youn people and adults, with special reference to the role of the junior colleges.

The national study is further aimed at discovering and eliminating some of the pitfalls which result in such problems as drop-outs, underachievement in course work, and unwise choice of programs of study on the part of students.

First objective of the two-year study, according to Dr. Edmund J. Gleazer, Jr., executive director of the AAPC, will be to define the guidance needs of young people and adults, and to relate them to the services that can be offered by two-year junior colleges.

"In the process," he added, "present counseling practices of junior colleges will be appraised in terms of strengths and weaknesses, with the results of this appraisal to form the basis for recommendations to improve guidance practices at the junior college level."

Calavo Commercial Zoning Rejected

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — A proposal for commercial rezoning of property at Avocado and Pueblo, Calavo Gardens, was turned down Friday by the County Planning Commission after neighbors protested the proposal.

George Anderson and Kenneth Darrow proposed that the property now developed with a single-family residence be rezoned from R-1 to C so that an office of some kind might be installed there.

Anderson told the commission that when the street was widened, the property would be useless as a residence, because the street would be at the edge of the house. He said he hoped to interest a real estate man or a doctor in the location.

George Beltz, commission secretary who had inspected the site, told the commission that parking would be extremely difficult on the property after the road was widened.

Opposing the proposal were George Baxter, Philip Farris, Michael Smith, Robert Marshall and Richard Lawrenson. Lawrenson also filed a letter from another neighbor who protested the rezoning.

LEMON GROVE STREET IMPROVEMENT AWARDED

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — The job of resurfacing 7.96 miles of streets in the Lemon Grove area was awarded Tuesday by the County Board of Supervisors to Kenneth H. Golden Co. for $59,072.

Two 4-H'ers To Receive Work Medals

San Diego County 4-H members who are named as medal winners in club work were announced recently by Herbert W. Weisheit, University of California farm advisor.

The 4-H club members were selected by a committee for outstanding club work in certain projects or activities.

Members who will receive medals at 4-H achievement meetings this fall are Paul Kistrup of Jamul and Steven De Frate, also of Jamul.

Kistrup, who holds the rank of All Star, is attending a statewide conference for 4-H'ers at the University of California at Davis this week.

Rezoning Request Withdrawn on Agua Dulce Acres

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—A proposal to rezone 10.3 acres of property on both sides of Agua Dulce blvd. north of Campo rd. for multiple-family use was withdrawn Friday by the Bradley Properties.

News of the location of the Highway 94 freeway through the property brought the withdrawal by Norman Kay, spokesman for the owners.

George Beltz, secretary to the County Planning Commission, told the commission that the freeway would leave only 2.1 acres after the right-of-way was obtained.

A "spot" of multiple-family dwelling in the remaining area would not be compatible with the single-family dwelling in the area, he recommended.

Elliott Pierce, who owns a neighboring residence, filed a petition from 23 families in the area who protested the proposal.

FREE RIDES FOR THE KIDDIES will be given to youngsters up to 10-years old, and not too heavy, in a "surrey with the fringe on top" Thursday, Friday and Saturday this week and next. The rides are being offered in front of the Salvation Army Thrift Store at 7765 Broadway from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., according to Don Fullerton, a Lemon Grove resident who manages the store. The "surrey with the fringe on top" idea was initiated by Fullerton to attract more people to the thrift shop. All items for sale there are donated by county residents and proceeds are used by the Salvation Army to rehabilitate men. Furniture for sale in S.A. thrift stores is renovated by men working in a paint and repair shop under the direction of Captain Robert Keene, shown above, who is in charge of the Men's Social Department of the San Diego Salvation Army.

Small business owners and managers in San Diego and Imperial counties will be able to secure loan information, long-term financing, assistance in securing government contracts, advice on proper business management and marketing, and help with the preparation of government bids.

San Diego is classified as a surplus labor area, and SBA loans can be made at 4 per cent interest rate, Meyers said.

Office hours will be 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

L.G. Man Combines Vacation and K.C. Convention Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Frank O'Connor of Mt. Vernon st. in Lemon Grove have just returned from a three week trip to Minnesota, South Dakota and Illinois, where they visited relatives and friends.

Their journey also took them to Milwaukee, Wisconsin, where O'Connor, one of eight California delegates elected at the state convention in Sacramento last May, attended the Supreme Convention of the Knights of Columbus. All states were represented, as well as Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands and Canadian provinces.

O'Connor was recently appointed California State Director of Nocturnal Adoration by State Deputy of the Knights of Columbus L. J. Ninteman.

St. John of the Cross church in Lemon Grove soon will begin its ninth year as a sponsor of this devotion. Groups of at least four knights act as guards for an hour beginning at eight o'clock in the evening and continuing through the night until a six o'clock special Mass for peace on the morning of the first Saturday of each month.

All parishioners and anyone else who may be interested are invited to attend during this night of prayer. Many of the councils in the state have joined in the movement, and it is a goal of the knights to spread the devotion throughout the country.

Services Held for Gunnard Peterson

Services were held Wednesday morning at Beardsley Funeral Home for Gunnard Peterson, 62, who lived at 1594 Drexel dr., Lemon Grove, for 12 years. Entombment followed at Fort Rosecrans cemetery.

Peterson, who moved to Ocean Beach two weeks ago, was working on the roof of his home at 4732 Orchard ave. when he suffered a fatal heart attack.

He was a plater at General Dynamics Astronauties/Convair.

Survivors are his wife, Elfa; two sons of Pomona; two brothers; two sisters; and four grandchildren.

'No Soap' on Richfield Request To Move Sign

SAN DIGO (CNS) — Richfield Corp. was turned down Friday by the County Planning Commission on its request to move a service station sign into the setback area at Jamacha and Sweetwater in Spring Valley.

Leonard Dysart, company spokesman, said the company wanted to move the sign to get it off the station pump canopy.

Grossmont College News

Hans Neyndorff, a graduate of the University of Leyden in Holland and a native of Indonesia, will teach History of Western Civilization Monday evenings. He will conduct a World Events discussion seminar on Thursday evenings this fall at Grossmont College.

Neyndorff was a prisoner of war of the Japanese and worked on the Burma-Siem railroad from 1942 to 1946. After the war he studied in Holland and for several years was a librarian and researcher in that country. He came to the United States in 1957 and is currently a special subjects librarian at San Diego State College.

Spanish Courses

Both beginning and advanced courses in Spanish will be presented in the Grossmont College Evening Division this fall.

Jack P. Scherf, regular member of the Monte Vista high school teaching staff, will be the instructor of the beginning course to be offered Tuesday and Thursday evenings, while Dr. George Lemus, San Diego State College faculty member and a long-time resident of Latin America and Spain, will teach the second-year course which is to be offered on Monday and Wednesday evenings.

Astronomy Offered

An introductory course in astronomy will be offered by Grossmont College on Monday evenings during the fall semester. The course, which is designed to develop knowledge and appreciation of astronomy with emphasis on the solar system, will be taught by Ray Resler.

Resler, who describes astronomy as "the geography of the space age," pointed out that this course may be applied to college and university physical science requirements.

Draftsmen Program

A two-year program designed to prepare men and women for direct employment as draftsmen in architectural firms is available at Grossmont College.

The program was developed by the Grossmont College Architectural Advisory Committee, formed of San Diego County members of the American Institute of Architects.

Students enrolled in 1962-63 will furnish the first graduates from the program in June, 1964.

Persons of the area interested in the program may obtain additional information by contacting the college at 465-1700.

Course Completed

Cornelius Vander Poll, Grossmont College registrar and business data processing instructor, recently concluded an eight-week summer institute at Orange Coast College at Costa Mesa.

The institute, dealing with advanced data processing subjects, was sponsored by the California State Department of Education and the U.S. Office of Education.

Vander Poll, formerly associated with the admissions and records office at San Diego State College, has been a member of the Grossmont College staff for two years. In addition to his assignment as registrar, he will teach a course in basic data processing machines this fall.

Hegland To Teach

Former Assemblyman Sheridan Hegland will teach a course on state and local government Wednesday evenings this fall at Grossmont College.

Hegland, who holds a master's degree from Stanford University and who has had many years of experience in state and local politics, can draw upon both his practical experience and his extensive educational background in presenting a course "lively with real and current problems in state and local governments," according to Dr. Charles C. Collins, dean of instruction.

Secretarial Course

Grossmont College will begin a full schedule of secretarial courses in the evening division this fall, Dean of Instruction Charles C. Collins has announced.

"Beginning and advanced shorthand courses, as well as typing, business machines, and business arithmetic will be offered," Dr. Collins stated.

According to Arthur E. Fitzner, chairman of the college's Business Department, the evening courses may be directed towards early employability or may be applied to the Associate in Arts Degree in secretarial science. "The secretarial field remains a good one in terms of employment opportunities," Fitzner said, "providing proper training is secured."

Information concerning registration procedures may be obtained by phoning the college at 465-1700 or by calling at the college office, 3230 Sweetwater Spring blvd., Spring Valley.

Real Live Model

An advanced art course, Art 7A, Life Drawing, will be offered by Grossmont College this fall on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays from 3:55 to 5:45 p.m.

The college's instructional office announced that the course is open to persons with considerable experience in drawing and painting. Live models will be used. The instructor is Carol Lebeck who has studied and taught art both in this country and in Europe.

Family, Child Course Slated

Family Life and Child Development, a new course offering by the Grossmont College Home Economics Department, will be taught this fall by Mrs. Betty B. Womack.

Mrs. Womack, a member of the regular instructional staff at Mount Miguel high school, possesses a master's degree in the field of child development. The course will be offered on Monday evenings from 7:50 to 10:30 p.m.
